

HOG CHOLERA EPIDEMIC IS FEARED IN KANSAS

TOPEKA, Kan., June 23.—Quarantine regulations against hog cholera are being put into effect in many Kansas counties, following the appearance of the disease. Carelessness of farmers about vaccinating hogs because of the low market price is blamed for the presence of the scourge.

HAPPENINGS IN SOCIETY

Important Weddings on Calendar—Mrs. Dawbarn Weds Robert Dixon Bartlett—Miss Bliss Now Mrs. Adolphus Knopf

TWO weddings of more than usual interest—the marriage of Mrs. Alice Carroll Dawbarn to Robert Dixon Bartlett, and the marriage of Miss Eleanor Bliss to Adolphus Knopf—divided the attention of society today, and were the most important events on the calendar.

In the prettiest of outdoor settings, Mrs. Alice Carroll Dawbarn, widow of Waring Lenox Dawbarn, of New York, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dunlop Williams, also of New York, was married today to Robert Dixon Bartlett, of Baltimore. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Kemp Bartlett and a nephew of Mrs. A. Mitchell Palmer, wife of the Attorney General.

The wedding took place at 12:30 o'clock at the country home of the bride's uncle and cousin, Herbert A. Gill and Miss Mona Gill, at Alta Vista, Md., and was attended by a small company of relatives and intimate friends. The ceremony, which was performed by Canon J. W. Austin, was solemnized on the broad veranda, tall palms and feathery greens embowering the white satin prie dieu, where the young couple knelt to receive the blessing. The veranda was further decorated with quantities of roses and great bowls of garden flowers.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and had her cousin, Mrs. Charles Edward Lyon, of Cambridge, Mass., formerly Miss Helen Gill, as her matron of honor. Her two small sons, Waring Lenox Dawbarn and Henry Dunlop Dawbarn, aged six and five, were pages. Mr. Bartlett had his brother, J. Kemp Bartlett, jr., as best man.

THE BRIDE'S GOWN.

Mrs. Dawbarn wore a lovely gown of ecru lace and georgette—abroad in flame colored beads and the note of brilliant color was repeated in the two flaming blossoms which trimmed her picture hat of ecru lace. She wore a corsage bouquet of orchids. Mrs. Lyon's costume was of gray blue georgette combined with cream colored lace and trimmed with clusters of French flowers in pastel shades. She wore a big black hat fashioned of horsehair braid and trimmed with flowers matching those on her gown and she carried a bouquet of pink roses.

The bride's mother was handsomely gowned in turquoise blue chiffon combined with matching silk and wore no hat. Mrs. Bartlett, mother of the bridegroom, had on a taupe chiffon costume beaded in cut steel, with a small flower hat and a corsage bouquet of orchids. And Miss Mona Gill wore a becoming white lace frock. Mrs. Dawbarn spent last winter in Washington, occupying an apartment in the Westminister, and her father and mother joined her there a few days ago. Mr. and Mrs. Bartlett came from their home in Baltimore for the wedding and are staying at the home of the Attorney General and Mrs. Palmer, with their daughter, Miss Virginia Bartlett, and a son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Givney, of New York. Other relatives of the bridegroom who came on for the wedding and are staying at the Palmer residence are his aunt and cousins, Mrs. William Norris and the Misses Mary Dixon Norris and Amanda Norris. Mr. and Mrs. Theodore N. Gill, cousins of the bride, were likewise present at the ceremony and the informal breakfast which followed.

Mr. Bartlett and his bride expect to spend their honeymoon in Colorado, and on their return in the autumn will make their home at Lake Station, near Baltimore. Her traveling costume is a midnight blue tulle suit, and with it she wears a becoming small hat of navy blue Batavia embroidered in green and gold on the upturned brim.

Last evening Mr. Gill and Miss Gill entertained at dinner at the Brooke House for the members of the bride's party and out-of-town guests. There were eighteen in the company.

Miss Eleanor F. Bliss, daughter of Gen. Tacker H. Bliss, governor of the Soldiers' Home, and Mrs. Bliss, and Augustus Knopf were married this morning at 10:30 o'clock in General and Mrs. Bliss' quarters at Soldiers' Home. It was originally intended that the wedding should take place in the autumn, but the date was advanced in order that Mr. Knopf might take his bride with him on an extended trip West. Consequently arrangements were hurriedly made and the ceremony was marked by great simplicity. There were no attendants and only members of the immediate families were present. The Rev. Dr. Robert Talbot, rector of St. Paul's Church, officiated.

The bride wore her traveling costume, a chic tailored suit of tan wool, and a small purple hat trimmed in blue corn flowers. Her father gave her in marriage, Mr. Knopf, who was formerly connected with the Geological Survey, is now on the faculty of Yale University; and, after spending the summer in the West, he and his bride will make their home at New Haven.

SON BORN TO GONDRA. The Minister of Paraguay and Mme. Gondra are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son yesterday at the legation. Dr. Gondra has been elected President of the Republic of Paraguay and will take his family home with him prior to assuming his new duties.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Scooby, of San Antonio, and R. E. Reader, of Brownsville, Tex., who have been visiting Senator and Mrs. Warren G. Harding, have gone to New York.

Princess Andrea Boncompagni, formerly Miss Margaret Draper, has gone to New York and will be at the Ritz-Carlton until tomorrow when she will sail on the S. S. La France for Europe. Prince Andrea, who returned to Italy several months ago after a visit in this country, will meet her in Havre and they will spend several weeks traveling in France and Switzerland before going to their home in Rome.

Mrs. Parker W. West, wife of Major West, lieutenant governor of the Soldiers' Home, is entertaining at bridge this afternoon in honor of Mrs. George Read, wife of Major General Read, who is spending a short time in Washington at the Shoreham Hotel. Mrs. Read is the daughter of Lieut. Gen. S. E. M. Young, former governor of the Home.

Bridge will be played on the gallery surrounding the hastes' quarters and at 5 o'clock additional guests are invited for tea.

Mrs. William Wood, wife of General Wood and Mrs. Clarence Ridley will preside at the tea table.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel A. Kimberly will be hosts at an informal reception this evening, entertaining in celebration of their silver wedding anniversary. They were married twenty-five years ago in St. Paul's Church, the Rev. Dr. Alfred Harding, then rector of the church and now Bishop Harding, officiating. Mrs. Kimberly was formerly Miss Clara Draper and is the daughter of Mrs. James H. Draper. Mrs. Draper now makes her home with her daughter and will assist her tonight. The house is sweet with flowers, many of them sent Mr. and Mrs. Kimberly by friends in recognition of the anniversary. A wedding cake will be a feature of the collation which will be served during the reception.

Mrs. Kimberly has just returned from Chicago, where she visited her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Duff Hayne, during convention week.

Mrs. Matthew T. Scott has joined her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Vrooman, in Illinois. Later in the summer she will open her cottage at Charlevoix, Mich., and will have Mrs. Vrooman with her.

Mrs. George X. McLanahan has closed her Q street home and with her family has gone to Watch Hill, Tea House for the summer home. Mrs. George W. McLanahan, who spent the winter in New York, will also be at Watch Hill for the summer.

Mrs. John Sidney Webb and her young daughter, Miss Sidney Webb, will go to Hot Springs on July 2 for several weeks prior to Miss Webb's joining her sister, Mrs. James E. Mitchell, at Bar Harbor, for the season.

DE BACH IN NEW YORK.

The counselor of the Russian embassy, Henri de Bach, has gone to New York. He will return to the embassy at the end of this week.

Mme. Concha, wife of Senator Enriquez Concha, of the Chilean senate, has arrived in Washington from her home in Santiago, Chile, and will spend several days at the Willard.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Folk will leave town tomorrow to attend the convention at San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. John Walker Holcombe and Miss Eugenia Holcombe will sail shortly for Europe.

Col. T. Q. Donaldson returned yesterday from a short trip to Philadelphia.

Vice Admiral and Mrs. Henry T. Mayo, of Washington, will make a long motor tour into the White Mountains. They are now at the Hotel Chatham, New York.

The Rev. Dr. Charles Wood, rector of the Church of the Covenant, officiated at the marriage last evening of Mrs. Beattie Sessions Baldwin, daughter of Mrs. Benjamin Reeves Russell, to Zamor Briggs Applegate, of Philadelphia, which took place at the home of Colonel and Mrs. Russell, in Eighteenth street. The ceremony was performed at 8 o'clock in the drawing room, a prie dieu being placed before a screen of palms and ferns. White roses were used in profusion here, and the rest of the house
